

Oligomeric Porphyrin complexes as candidates for quantum logic gates implementation

Lorenzo SORACE - University of Firenze

We show that dimeric porphyrin based complexes have good spin coherence and a sizable magnetic interaction, making them suitable for operating two-qubit molecular spin-based quantum gates over a wide range of operation conditions.