

Michele Perlangeli is a Ph.D. student from the University of Trieste, Italy. In his research activity, Michele Perlangeli has dealt with time-resolved optical reflectivity and time-resolved photoluminescence. He has also had experience with LEED, STM and XPS techniques. Now he deals with static and time resolved photoluminescence, and is learning about angle, spin and time resolved UPS photoemission.