

Francesco Spedicato graduated with honors in December 2020 in Medical, Veterinary, and Pharmaceutical Biotechnology at the University of Salento. He is currently a PhD student at the University of Salento in the Molecular Biology laboratory. His research focuses on studying a class of autologous platelet concentrates, such as CGF (Concentrated Growth Factors), and their application together with other biocompatible scaffolds in the field of regenerative medicine.